

Investigation Report

for Ginny

Case: Mrs Connie Blackwood
DR NO. 12656 - Accidental Death

The results of the investigation show that Victor Blackwood's brother Rhett, who has no alibi, certainly caused the death of Mrs Connie Blackwood.

Theory: Victor convinced his brother Rhett to commit the murder of his wife to collect the insurance money because of his financial problems and drug addiction.

Overall report

The victim was found dead at the bottom of the stairs with multiple injuries.

Location: 12 Eagle Point Drive, Savannah GA 31406

2 entrances:

- 1 by boat
- 1 by car

Only one long road to access the property

Cameras were found around the property

Alarm seems to work as seen within the house

A dog, or many more if you look at the videos posted on Connie's personal Tiktok account.

Private property seems to be well protected and the assailant must have been familiar with the property- Relatives must be checked as a priority.

Investigative search in the house:

One usb drive has been found protected with a password.

Password has been recovered by a note referring to "The Adventure of the Speckled Band"

In the narrative, it is discovered that the "speckled band" refers to a venomous snake, a deadly swamp adder. Dr. Grimesby Roylott, the stepfather of the twin sisters, used the snake to murder Julia Stoner in an attempt to change the inheritance and gain control of their wealth. The snake, trained by Roylott, would crawl through a ventilator from Roylott's room to the room of the victims during the night.

On the USB drive we found:

- A letter from Accounting firm of Georgia showing that he has financial problems
- A pdf document of Kase Life Insurance: an adjustment amount of $3,000,000.00 has been made by M.Blackwood (previous amount was $150,000.00) for his wife.
- Some pictures of the victim with her brother in law M. Rhett in front of a motel taken by a private investigator named Roberts
- Cheques made out in his name

The evidence on the flash drive protected USB show M.Blackwood:

- has financial problem
- hired a private investigator
- knew about his wife's extra-marital relationship with his brother
- increased his wife's death grant

Note that the key's password refers to betrayal, night, inheritance and gain control.

Alibis:

M. Blackwood and his son have alibis

Rhett Blackwood has no alibi

Two witnesses:

1. First witness took a picture of a car during the night of the incident.
Confirmation that the photo sports car belongs to Mr Rhett (Facebook profile).
2. Second Witness contacted us because he got threatened on a Facebook group by a guy about sports cars. The guy said he can commit murder and get away with it like our specific case. Confirmation the Facebook profile is related to M.Rhett.

Mr.Rhett has no alibi, he owns a sports car which was found at the scene of the crime, he is a strange and threatening person who said he could commit a murder by indicating our case for investigation. Everything points to his guilt.

Analysis of the Rhett interview:

Setting and Introduction:

- Detective Marsh at Chatham County Police Department.
- Date and time: 8:30 am on Monday, May 29th, 2023.
- Detective Marsh introduces himself and asks Rhett to state his name for the record.
- Detective Marsh asks if Rhett is speaking voluntarily.

Rhett's Motivation:

- Rhett expresses resentment because his brother (Victor) is in jail, and he believes the police screwed him over.

New Evidence:

- Detective Marsh mentions new evidence related to Connie, Victor's trial, and asks for Rhett's opinion.

Relationship with Connie:

- Rhett describes Connie as his sister-in-law and mentions they hung out often but denies a romantic relationship.

Revelation of Affair:

- Detective Marsh presents photos suggesting an affair between Rhett and Connie.
- Rhett initially denies it but later admits to the affair, claiming Connie came onto him.

Victor's Financial Troubles:

- Detective Marsh brings up Victor's financial problems and a check he wrote to himself from victim funds, suggesting he owed money.

Drugs in Victor's Office:

- Detective Marsh reveals that drugs were found in Victor's office, implying Victor owed money to drug dealers.

Life Insurance Policy:

- Detective Marsh mentions a $3 million life insurance policy Victor took out on Connie before her death.

Presence at the Crime Scene:

- Detective Marsh confronts Rhett with evidence of his car being at the crime scene the night of the murder.

Detective's Theory:

- Detective Marsh presents his theory: Victor forced Rhett to help with the murder for insurance money due to financial troubles and a drug addiction.

Request for Lawyer:

- Rhett demands a lawyer, indicating a shift in the conversation.

Conclusion of Interview:

- Detective Marsh concludes the interview, stating it's the end of the Chatham County interview of Rhett Blackwood.

All the evidence suggests that Rhett has been hiding things, the fact that he believes the police have been screwing his brother may lead us to think that he supports his brother and that they may be complicit.

The tone of voice in the interview rules out the possibility that he was coerced by his brother, even though we know that Mr Blackwood is a man of the law and could have blackmailed his brother.

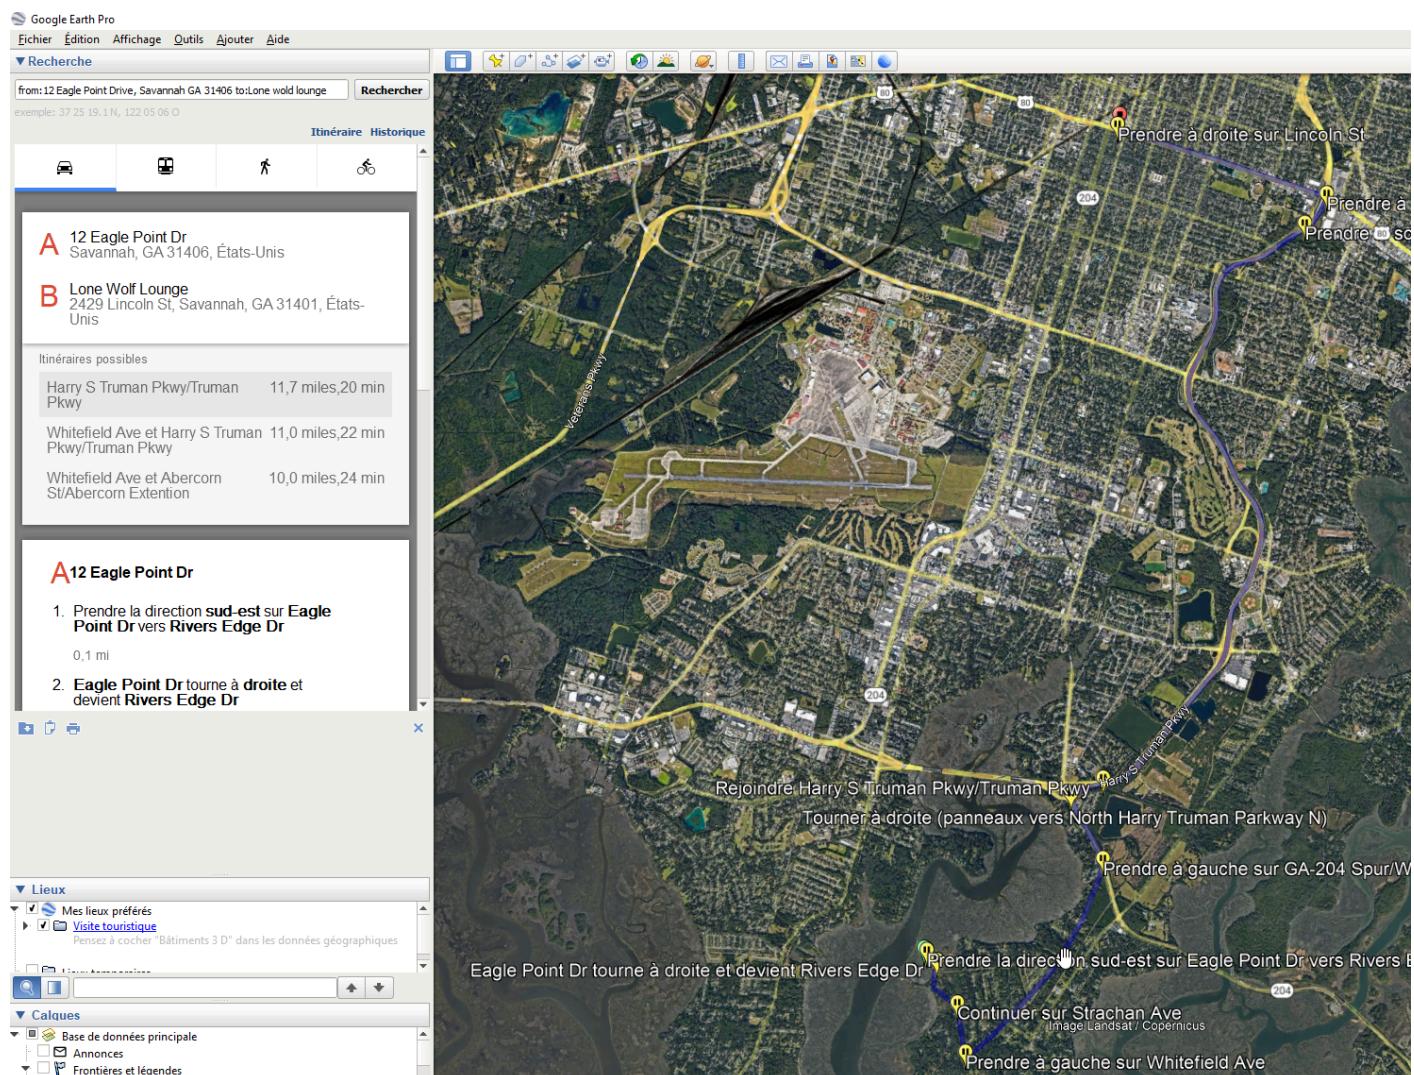

Double check of M.Blackwood alibi:

According to M.E. death time: 10:45pm

Video confirms M. Victor Blackwood was at the Lone Wolf lounge at 10:53pm

The first witness took the photo of the sports car at 11.12pm and saw someone drive off shortly afterwards at 11:15pm.

Distance between the house and the Lounge bar is around 11 miles and takes at least 20 minutes by car. This confirms that M. Victor Blackwood could not have been there.

Conclusion

The evidence suggests that Rhett committed the murder of Mrs Blackwood.

The theory is that Victor convinced his brother Rhett to commit the murder of his wife to collect the insurance money due to his financial problems and drug addiction.
